

Clemente

Transforming lives through education

ARE YOU FEELING ISOLATED, DOING IT TOUGH, OR KNOW SOMEONE WHO IS?

Are you:

- > over 18 years of age
- > willing to learn
- > able to commit to a 12 week program
- > able to read and discuss a newspaper article?

The Clemente program could be for you.

Clemente helps individuals to re-engage with community and re-connect with learning. It is a university level course delivered at no cost to the student.

Gain a pathway to enter University with a Certificate in Liberal Studies from Australian Catholic University

SEMESTER 2, 2017 PHIL 102

Theories of Human Nature

This unit introduces students to a series of issues and debates in philosophical anthropology, touching on matters relating to the metaphysical nature of human beings, the diversity of ways of theorising about being human, the complexities and paradoxes of free selfhood, and ultimate questions of meaning and destiny.

Starts: Thursday 10 August 2017
Enrolments due: 31 July 2017

Classes occur once a week on Thursday (10am – 2pm) at Brisbane Common Ground, 15 Hope Street, South Brisbane.

FIND OUT MORE – INFORMATION SESSION

When: Thursday 20 July, 10am – 10.45am
Where: Brisbane Common Ground 15 Hope St South Brisbane

RSVP by 19 July

Contact the St Vincent de Paul Society Queensland,
P: 07 3010 1083 E: clemente.brisbane@svdpqld.org.au

Clemente Brisbane is proudly delivered in partnership between:

St Vincent de Paul Society
QUEENSLAND
good works