Course snapshot

The Certificate IV in Youth Work will qualify you as a youth worker, helping young people with a wide range of issues they may face including homelessness, drug and alcohol abuse, finding a job, bullying, suicide and housing. A typical day would include working with young people in a group or individually, offering them practical and emotional support.

THIS COURSE IS AVAILABLE ONLINE ONLY

COURSE LENGTH

Study at your own pace in your own time online – the course can be completed in up to 21 months

200 hours of work placement (as part of the course)

LEARN ONLINE

Enjoy the benefits of studying online at a time that suits you, while still having access to qualified teachers via phone and email.

Our trainers have years of industry experience as youth workers and make learning interesting and fun.

We understand that everyone learns differently – that's why we tailor subjects to suit individual students. The best way to learn is through practical, hands-on experience, that's why you'll get the opportunity to undertake work experience in a range of settings.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Did you know youth workers are in high demand? We may also interview students during the course for volunteer opportunities in the same facility they will likely be employed.

Not entirely sure what you want to do with your career? That's okay, the Certificate IV in Youth Work will get you qualified for a range of jobs.

Occupational titles include:

Youth worker

Youth housing support worker

Youth alcohol and drugs worker

Residential care worker

Indigenous youth worker
