

Property management with impact

SUPPORTING OLDER
WOMEN IN HOUSING NEED

Are you a property investor? Let's make an impact together - join Project 55

Choose Elevate Residential to manage your investment property and you'll be helping to support women aged 55+ at risk of homelessness into safe, secure and affordable housing.

The property management fees you pay will support Elevate Residential's Project 55, which raises funds to sponsor older women in housing need to achieve better housing outcomes. All Project 55 profits are donated to our charitable partner BHC, an experienced developer and community housing provider in Brisbane.

Your property management fees contribute to:

Access to a safe and affordable home for a woman
(at risk of homelessness)

Personalised supports, include:

- Rental subsidy
- Rental bond assistance
- Furniture packages
- Cost of living relief
- Employment & training opportunities
- Mental Health, wellbeing & physical health supports
